

Kingston Heritage Service invite you to the première of

CINEMA IN KINGSTON

An oral history exploring the history of film projection and cinema in Kingston from Muybridge to the multiplex.

Featuring interviews with historians, projectionists and usherettes as well as cinema-goers with rare footage and images from Kingston's cinemas this wonderful new documentary is a must-see.

Also, a special b-feature presentation of

Reel Stories

An oral history of London's Cinema Projectionists

Wednesday 13th July at 2pm

The Rose Theatre

24-26 High Street, Kingston, KT1 1HL

To book your free seat RSVP to local.history@kingston.gov.uk

More info at www.reelstories.org.uk/kingston

